

During the competition we will be taking photographs and video for the purposes of publicity and fundraising to support RoboCon. We also expect that many of the participants will want to take photos for use by their schools and colleges or on their own social media.

If you do not wish identifiable pictures of yourself to be included in any internal or external publicity or social media posts you may request a yellow lanyard on the day which must be worn clearly visible at all times while you are on the Hills Road site.

Anyone taking photos on the Hills Road site is required to ensure that the identity of any person wearing a yellow lanyard is suitably obscured in any photo which is shared on any platform and for any purpose.

Everyone attending the competition is required to complete the following form to confirm consent and understanding of this media policy in order to be issued with an entrance wristband.
